

INDIAN FORESTS ACT

The Indian Forest Act, 1927

Introduction

Forest policy and management was introduced in India by the British Government by setting up a Forest Department and enacting relevant legislation in the 19th Century. The stated assumption of such a move was that local communities were incapable of scientific management, and that only a trained, centrally organised cadre of officers could properly manage forests. The concealed motive was commercial exploitation of the vast treasures that India's forests offered for industrial use back in Britain.

According to latest report, over 19 percent of India's landmass is covered by forests, but only less than 12 percent is dense forests.

Statement of objects and reasons

The general law relating to forests in British India is contained in the Indian Forest Act, 1878 and its amending Acts. The present Bill brings the law together within the scope of one enactment. The Bill is a straightforward consolidating Bill but the original Act having been passed before the General Clause Act of 1897 (10 of 1897), it has been possible to shorten the language of the Bill by taking advantage of that Act. The ambiguous language of the second paragraph of section 42 of Act 7 of 1878 has been altered in clause 42(2) so as to bring it into conformity with what appears to have been the original intention of the law. The only other point which calls for further notice is the extent clause. The original Act extended to the Province of Assam, but by Regulation 7 of 1891 the Indian Forest Act, 1878 was repealed as far as it relates to Assam. The Bill accordingly omits Assam from the extent clause

Act 16 of 1927

The Bill to consolidate the law relating to forests and the transit of forest produce was passed and further assented by Governor-General of India on 21st September, 1927 and became a Central Act under the short title and number "Indian Forest Act, 1927 (16 of 1927)".

(ii) Sub-clauses (ii), (iii) and (iv) of clause 4(b) of section 2 of the Act would indicate that the word 'forest' has been used in the definition in its widest significance; Laxman Icharam v. D.F.O. Raigarh, AIR 1953 Nag 51 (FB).

(iii) A cursory perusal of the definition makes it clear that the term 'forest produce' includes 'timber'; Abdul Samad v. State. AIR 1969 J & K 52.

He shall also record whether the timber or other forest-produce obtained by the exercise of the rights claimed may be sold or bartered.

Comments

Section 14 of the Act provides that the Forest Settlement-officer, in case he admits the whole or in part any clause under section 12 of the Act, shall also record the extent to which the claim is so admitted, specifying the number and the description of the cattle which the claimant is, from time to time, authorised to take or receive and such other particulars as the case may require, Mohd. Siddiq v. State AIR 1968 All 396.

Commutation of rights.-In case the Forest Settlement-officer finds it impossible having due regard to the maintenance of the reserved forest, to make such settlement under section 15 as shall ensure the continued exercise of the said rights to the extent so admitted, he shall, subject to such rules as the State Government may make in this behalf, commute such rights, by the payment to such persons of a sum of money in lieu thereof, or by the grant of land, or in such other manner as he thinks fit.

Provided that the State Government may establish a Court (hereinafter called the Forest Court) composed of three persons to be appointed by the State Government, and when the Forest Court has been so established, all such appeals shall be presented to it.

18. Appeal under section 17.-(I) Every appeal under section 17 shall be made by petition in writing, and may be delivered to the Forest Settlement-officer, who shall forward it without delay to the authority competent to hear the same.

(2) If the appeal be to officer appointed under section 17, it shall be heard in the manner prescribed for the time being for the hearing of appeals in matters relating to land-revenue.

(3) If the appeal be to the Forest Court, the Court shall fix a day and a convenient place in the neighbourhood of the proposed forest for hearing the appeal, and shall give notice thereof to the parties, and shall hear such appeal accordingly.

(4) The order passed on the appeal by such officer or Court, or by the majority of the members of such Court, as the case may be, shall, subject only to revision by the State Government, be final.

Comments

(i) Considering the scope of sub-section (4) of section 18 of the Act there is no clear provision in the Act conferring any right on the aggrieved claimants to go up in revision against the order passed by the Forest Appellate Court under section 17 of the Act; Swami Nath Singh v. State of U.P., AIR 1967 All 427.

(ii) Sub-section (4) of section 18 of the Act provide for revising an appellate order by the State Government; Mahendra Lal Jain v. State of U..P., AIR 1963 SC 1019.

(iii) No revision was filed before the State Government (Local Government) and the appellate order, thus, became final under sub-section (4) of the section 18 of the Act; Maha Laxmi Bank Ltd. v. Province of Bengal, AIR 1942 Cal 371.

19. Pleadings.-The State Government, or any person who has made a claim under this Act, may appoint any person to appear, plead and act on its or his behalf before the Forest Settlement-officer, or the appellate officer or Court, in the course of any inquiry or appeal under this Act.

20. Notification declaring forest reserved.-(I) When the following events have occurred, namely:-

(a) the period fixed under section 6 for preferring claims have elapsed and all claims (if any) made under that section or section 9 have been disposed of by the Forest Settlement-office.

(b) if any such claims have been made, the period limited by section 17 for appealing from the orders passed on such claims has elapsed, and all appeals (if any) presented within such period have been disposed of by the appellate officer or Court; and

(c) all lands (if any) to be included in the proposed forest, which the Forest Settlement-officer has, under section 11, elected to acquire under the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (I of 1894), have become vested in the Government under section 16 of that Act, the State Government shall publish a notification in the Official Gazette, specifying definitely, according to boundary-marks erected or otherwise, the limits of the forest which is to be reserved, and declaring the same to be reserved from a date fixed by the notification.

(2) From the date so fixed such forest shall be deemed to be a reserved forest.

Comments

(i) It is only from the date fixed by the notification under subsections of section 20 of the Act that a forest is deemed to be a reserved forest, Gola v. Emperor, AIR 1946 Pat 51.

(ii) The notification under section 20 of the Act must specify the limits of the forest and the date from which the forest is constituted; Mausid Oraan v. The King, AIR 1951 Pat 380.

21. Publication of translation of such notification in neighbourhood of forest.-The Forest-officer shall, before the date fixed by such notification, cause a translation thereof into the local vernacular to be published in every town and village in the neighbourhood of the forest.

22. Power to revise arrangement made under section 15 or section 18.-The State Government may, within five years from the publication of any notification under section 20, revise any arrangement made under section 15 or section 18, and may for this purpose rescind or modify any order made under section 15 or section 18, and direct that any one of the proceedings specified in section 15 be taken in lieu of any other of such proceedings, or that the right admitted under section 12 be commuted under section 16.

23. No right acquired over reserved forest, except as here provided.-No right of any description shall be acquired in or over a reserved forest except by succession or under a grant or contract in writing made by or on behalf of the Government or some person in whom such right was vested when the notification under section 20 was issued.

24. Rights not to be alienated without sanction.-(I) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 23, no right continued under clause (c) of sub-section (2) of section 15 shall be alienated by way of grant, sale, lease mortgage or otherwise, without the sanction of the State Government.

Provided that, when any such right is appendant to any land or house, it may be sold or otherwise alienated with such land or house.

(2) No timber or other forest-produce obtained in exercise of any such right shall be sold or bartered except to such extent as may have been admitted in the order recorded under section 14.

25. Power to stop ways and water-courses in reserved forests.-The Forest-officer may, with the previous sanction of the State Government or of any officer duly authorised by it in this behalf, stop any public or private way or water-course in a reserved forest, provided that a substitute for the way or water-course so stopped, which the State Government deems to be reasonably convenient, already exists, or has been provided or contracted by the Forest-officer in lieu thereof.

26. Acts prohibited in such forests.-(1) Any person who-

(a) makes any fresh clearing prohibited by section 5, or

(b) sets fire to a reserved forest, or, in contravention of any rules made by the State Government in this behalf, kindles any fire, or leaves any fire burning, in such manner as to endanger such a forest;

or who, in a reserved forest-

(c) kindles, keeps or carries any fire except at such seasons as the Forest-officer may notify in this behalf;

(2) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to prohibit-

(a) any act done by permission in writing of the Forest-officer, or under any rule made by the state Government; or

(b) the exercise of any right continued under clause (c) of sub-section (2) of section 15, or created by grant or contract in writing made by or on behalf of the Government under section 23.

(3) Whenever fire is caused wishfully or by gross negligence in a reserved forest, the State Government may (notwithstanding that any penalty has been inflicted under this section) direct that in such forest or any portion thereof the exercise of all rights of pasture or to forest-produce shall be suspended for such period as it thinks fit.

Comments

(i) The onus lies on the State to prove the guilt of accused under section 26 of the Act. When the notification has not been proved in accordance with law by the documentary evidence as provided under the provisions of the Evidence Act, 1872, the accused can not be held liable to punishment; Janu Khan v. State, AIR 1960 Pat 213.

(ii) For the purpose of proving guilt of the accused, it is necessary to show not only that they did the acts mentioned in clauses (f) and (h) of sub-section (I) of section 26, but also that they were not entitled to do those acts because there had been a notification issued under sub-section (I) of section 20 of the Act specifying the limits of the forest and that the land in question fell within those limits. Such a notification is essential for the purpose of declaring a forest as a reserved forest. The production of notification under section 4 or oral evidence as to limits of the forest is not sufficient; Mausid Oraon v. The King AIR 1951 Pat 380.

(iii) The bamboo trees are forest-produce but topals, supads made from bamboo chips are not forest-produce. Thus, the permission of forest department is not required for removal of such bamboo articles from the reserved forests; Fateh Singh Guniba v. State, AIR 1987 Guj 918.

(iv) In view of the provisions of clause (i) of sub-section (I) of section 26 of the Act, no person can carry on fishing within the reserved forest without the permission of the Forest Settlement Officer or State Government. The fish found in a channel or pond in reserved forest is forest-produce; State v. Dist. Judge, Bijnor, AIR 1981 All 205.

27. Power to declare forest no longer reserved.-(I) The State Government may, [] by notification in the Official Gazette, direct that, from a date fixed by such notification, any forest or any portion thereof reserved under the Act shall cease to be a reserved forest.

(2) From the date so fixed, such forest or portion shall cease to be reserved; but the rights (if any) which have been extinguished therein shall not revive in consequence of such cessation.

Chapter III

Of Village-Forests

28. Formation of village-forest.-(I) The State Government may assign to any village-community the rights of Government to or over any land which has been constituted a reserved forest, and may cancel such assignment. All forests so assigned shall be called village-forests.

(2) The State Government may make rules for regulating the management of village-forests, prescribing the conditions under which the community to which any such assignment is made may be provided with timber or other forest-produce or pasture, and their duties for the protection and improvement of such forest.

(3) All the provisions of this Act relating to reserved forests shall (so far as they are not inconsistent with the rules so made) apply to village-forests.

Chapter IV

Of protected Forests

29. Protected forests.-(1) The State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, declare the provisions of this Chapter applicable to any forest-land or waste-land which is not included in a reserved forest but which is the property of Government, or over which the Government has proprietary rights, or to the whole or any part of the forest-produce of which the Government is entitled.

(2) The forest-land and waste-lands comprised in any such notification shall be called a "protected forest".

(3) No such notification shall be made unless the nature and extent of the rights of Government and of private persons in or over the forest-land or waste-land comprised therein have been inquired into and recorded at a survey or settlement, or in such other manner as the State Government thinks sufficient. Every such record shall be presumed to be correct until the contrary is proved:

Provided that, if in the case of any forest-land or waste land, the State Government thinks that such inquiry and record are necessary, but that they will occupy such length of time as in the meantime to endanger the rights of Government, the State Government may, pending such inquiry and record, declare such land to be a protected forest, but so as not to abridge or affect any existing rights of individuals or communities.

Comments

(i) Chapter IV of the Act provides for what are called protected forests and the State Government is empowered to constitute any land other than reserved forests as protected forests. The State Government is further empowered to make rules to regulate cutting, sawing, conversion or removal of trees, etc. Penalties are prescribed for acting in contravention of the prohibitions contained in the earlier part of the Act; Virji Lalji Patel & Co., Jabalpur v. State of M.P., 1965 Jab LJ 1017.

(ii) Under sub-section (2) of section 29, the forest and waste lands are to be called protected forest. There is no provision in Chapter IV for transfer of possession over any property to the Government. Legally, therefore, possession could not pass to Government by mere fact of publication of notification; M/s. Jetmal Bhajraj v. State of Bihar, AIR 1967 Pat 287.

30. Power to issue notification reserving trees, etc.-The State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette,-

(a) declare any trees or class of trees in a protected forest to be reserved from a date fixed by the notification;

(b) declare that any portion of such forest specified in the notification shall be closed for such term, not exceeding thirty years, as the State Government thinks fit, and that the rights of private persons, if any, over such portion shall be suspended during such terms, provided that the remainder of such forest be sufficient, and in a locality reasonably convenient, for the due exercise of the right suspended in the portion so closed; or

(c) prohibit, from a date fixed as aforesaid, the quarrying of stone, or the burning of lime or charcoal, or the collection or subjection to any manufacturing process, or removal of, any forest-produce in any such forest, and the breaking up or clearing for cultivation, for building, for herding cattle or for any other purpose, of any land in any such forest.

31. Publication of translation of such notification in neighbourhood.-The Collector shall cause a translation into the local vernacular of every notification issued under section 30 to be affixed in a conspicuous place in every town and village in the neighborhood of the forest comprised in the notification.

32. Power to make rules for protected forests.-The State Government may make rules to regulate the following matters, namely:-

(a) the cutting, sawing, conversion and removal of trees and timber, and the collection, manufacture and removal of forest-produce, from protected forests;

(b) the granting of licences to the inhabitants of towns and villages in the vicinity of protected forests to take trees, timber or other forest-produce for their own use, and the production and return of such licences by such persons;

(c) the granting of licences to persons felling or removing trees or timber or other forest-produce from such forests for the purpose of trade, and the production and return of such licences by such persons;

(d) the payments, if any, to be made by the persons mentioned in clauses (b) and (c) for permission to cut such trees, or to collect and remove such timber or other forest-produce;

(e) the other payments, if any, to be made by them in respect of such trees, timber and produce, and the places where such payment shall be made;

(f) the examination of forest-produce passing out of such forests;

(g) the clearing and breaking up of land for cultivation or other purpose in such forests;

(h) the protection from fire of timber lying in such forests and of trees reserved under section 30;

(i) the cutting of grass and pasturing of cattle in such forests;

(j) hunting, shooting, fishing, poisoning water and setting traps or snares in such forests and the killing or catching of elephants in such forests in areas in which the Elephants' Preservation Act, 1879 (6 of 1879), is not in force;

(k) the protection and management of any portion of a forest closed under section 30; and

(i) the exercise of rights referred to in section 29.

Comments

The conservator of forest, who is a public authority acting on behalf of the Government, is required to act in a reasonable manner. While exercising his powers under the standing orders in matters relating to grant of extension of period of licence, he can not act arbitrarily at his own sweet will like a private individual, instead he must act in conformity with the constitution and the principles laid down in the standing orders in a manner which may withstand the test of reasonableness. Any departure with the principle of reason or equality would vitiate the order; Dayashankar Singh v. Conservator of Forest, AIR 1984 All 188.

33. Penalties for acts in contravention of notification under section 30 or of rules under section 32.-(I) Any person who commits any of the following offences, namely:-

(a) fells, girdles, lops, taps or burns any tree reserved under section 30, or strips off the bark or leaves from, or otherwise damages, any such tree;

(b) contrary to any prohibition under section 30, quarries any stone, or burns any lime or charcoal or collects, subjects to any manufacturing process, or removes any forest-produce;

(c) contrary to any prohibition under section 30, breaks up or clears for cultivation or any other purpose any land in any protected forest;

(d) sets fire to such forest, or kindles a fire without taking all reasonable precautions to prevent its spreading to any tree reserved under section 30, whether standing fallen or felled, or to any closed portion of such forest;

(e) leaves burning any fire kindled by him in the vicinity of any such tree or closed portion;

(f) fells any tree or drags any timber so as to damage any tree reserved as aforesaid;

(g) permits cattle to damage any such tree;

(h) infringes any rule made under section 32, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both.

(2) Whenever fire is caused wrathfully or by gross negligence in a protected forest, the State Government may, notwithstanding that any penalty has been inflicted under this section, direct that in such forest or any portion thereof the exercise of any right of pasture or to forest-produce shall be suspended for such period as it thinks fit.

Comments

The provisions of section 33 of the Act only provide punishments for the commission of offences mentioned in the section and there is no provision specifically given in this section to award compensation for damages caused in respect of the protected forest; Emperor v. Hulianna, 8 Bom LR 957.

34. Nothing in this Chapter to prohibit acts done in certain cases.-Nothing in this Chapter shall be deemed to prohibit any act done with the permission in writing of the Forest-officer, or in accordance with rules made under section 32, or, except as regards any portion of a forest closed under section 30, or as regards any rights the exercise of which has been suspended under section 33, in the exercise of any right recorded under section 29.

Chapter V

Of the control over forests and lands not being the property of Government

35. Protection of forest for special purpose.-(I) The State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, regulate or prohibit in any forest or waste-land-

- (a) the breaking up or clearing of land for cultivation;
- (b) the pasturing of cattle; or
- (c) the firing or clearing of the vegetation;

when such regulation or prohibition appears necessary for any of the following purpose:-

- (i) for protection against storms, winds, rolling stones, floods and avalanches;
- (ii) for the preservation of the soil on the ridges and slopes and in the valleys of hilly tracts, the prevention of landslips or of the formation of ravines, and torrents, or the protection of land against erosion, or the deposit thereon of sand, stones or gravel;
- (iii) for the maintenance of a water-supply in springs, rivers and tanks;
- (iv) for the protection of roads, bridges, railways and other lines of communication;
- (v) for the preservation of the public health.

(2) The State Government may, for any such purpose, construct at its own expense, in or upon any forest or waste-land, such work as it thinks fit.

(3) No notification shall be made under sub-section (1) nor shall any work be begun under sub-section (2), until after the issue of a notice to the owner of such forest or land calling on him to show cause, within a reasonable period to be specified in such notice, why such notification should not be made or work constructed, as the case may be, and until his objections, if any, and any evidence he may produce in support of the same, have been heard by an officer duly appointed in that behalf and have been considered by the State Government.

Comments

(i) The provisions contained in the section 35 and 36 of Chapter V of the Act empower the State Government to assume the management of such forests at the request of owners; V.L. Patel & Co. v. State of M.p., AIR 1965 MP 211.

(ii) Chapter V of the Act deals with the control over forests and lands not being the property of the Government. The provisions of this chapter would themselves show that the Act is intended to be a piece of legislation not only in respect of Government forest but also in respect of forests and lands not belonging to Government; Kashi Parsed v. State of Orissa AIR 1963 Ori 24.

36. Power to assume management of forests.-(1) In case of neglect of, or wilful disobedience to, any regulation or prohibition under section 35, or if the purposes of any work to be constructed under that section so require, the State Government may, after notice in writing to the owner of such forest or land and after considering his objections, if any, place the same under the control of a Forest-officer, and may declare that all or any of the provisions of this Act relating to reserved forests shall apply to such forest or land.

(2) The net profits, if any, arising from the management of such forest or land shall be paid to the said owner.

37. Expropriation of forests in certain cases.-(1) In any case under this Chapter in which the State Government considers that, in lieu of placing the forest or land under the control of a Forest-Officer, the same should be acquired for public purposes, the State Government may proceed to acquire it in the manner provided by the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (1 of 1894).

(2) The owner of any forest or land comprised in any notification under section 35 may, at any time not less than three or more than twelve years from the date thereof, require that such forest or land shall be acquired for public purpose, and the State Government shall acquire such forest or land accordingly.

38. Protection of forests at request of owners.-(1) The owner of any land or, if there be more than one owner thereof, the owners of shares therein amounting in the aggregate to at least two-thirds thereof may, with a view to the formation or conservation of forests thereon, represent in writing to the Collector their desire-

(a) that such land be managed on their behalf by the Forest-officer as a reserved or a protected forest on such terms as may be mutually agreed upon; or

(b) that all or any of the provisions of this Act be applied to such land.

(2) In either case, the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, apply to such land such provisions of this Act as it thinks suitable to the circumstances thereof and as may be desired by the applicants.

Comments

A strong presumption of legality and correctness is always attached in favour of notification issued under section 38 of the Act which can not be rebutted in collateral proceedings initiated under some other Act; Ballangarh Co-operative Chore Reclamation Society v. State of Punjab, AIR 1988 P & H 228.

Chapter VI

Of the duty on timber and other forest-produce

39. Power to impose duty on timber and other forest-produce.-(I) The [Central Government] may levy a duty in such manner, at such places and at such rates as it may declare by notification in the Official Gazette on all timber or other forest-produce-

(a) which is produced in ² [the territories to which this Act extends], and in respect of which the Government has any right;

(b) which is brought from any place outside ² [the territories to which this Act extends].

(2) In every case in which such duty is directed to be levied ad valorem the 1[Central Government] may fix by like notification the value on which such duty shall be assessed.

(3) All duties on timber or other forest-produce which, at the time when this Act comes into force in any territory, are levied therein under the authority of the State Government, shall be deemed to be and to have been duly levied under the provisions of this Act.

4[(4) Notwithstanding anything in this section, the State Government may, until provision to the country is made by '[Parliament]', continue to levy any duty which it was lawfully levying before the commencements of ⁷[the Constitution], under this section as then in force;

Provided that nothing in this sub-section authorises the levy of any duty which as between timber or other forest-produce of the State and similar produce of the locality outside the State, discriminates in favour of the former, or which, in the case of timber or

The enhancement of royalty for better performance of the work in order to improve man made forests does not amount to levy tax; Sirpur Paper Mills Ltd. v. Government of Andhra Pradesh, AIR 1984 NOC 301 (AP).

40. Limit not to apply to purchase-money or royalty.-Nothing in this Chapter shall be deemed to limit the amount, if any, chargeable as purchase-money or royalty on any timber or other forest-produce, although the same is levied on such timber or produce while in transit, in the same manner as duty is levied.

Chapter VII

Of the control of timber and other forest-produce in transit

41. Power to make rules to regulate transit of forest produce.-(1) The control of all rivers and their banks as regards the floating of timber, as well as the control of all timber and other forest-produce in transit by land or water, is vested in the State Government, and it may make rules to regulate the transit of all timber and other forest-produce.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power such rules may-

(a) prescribe the routes by which alone timber or other forest-produce may be imported, exported or moved into, from or within 1[the State];

(b) prohibit the import or export or moving of such timber or other produce without a pass from an officer duly authorised to issue the same, or otherwise than in accordance with the conditions of such pass;

(c) provide for the issue, production and return of such passes and for the payment of fees therefor;

(d) provide for the stoppage, reporting, examination and marketing of timber or other forest-produce in transit, in respect of which there is reason to believe that any money is payable to the Government on account of the price thereof, or on account of any duty, fee, royalty or charge due thereon, or, to which it is desirable for the purpose of this Act to affix a mark;

(e) provide for the establishment and regulation of depots to which such timber or other produce shall be taken by those in charge of it for examination, or for the payment of such money, or in order that such marks may be affixed to it, and the conditions under which such timber or other produce shall be brought to, stored at and removed from such depots;

(f) prohibit the closing up or obstructing of the channel or banks of any river used for the transit of timber or other forest-produce, and the throwing of grass, brushwood, branches or leaves into any such river or any act which may cause such river to be closed or obstructed;

(g) provide for the prevention or removal of any obstruction of the channel or banks of any such river, and for recovering the cost of such prevention or removal from the person whose acts or negligence necessitated the same;

(h) prohibit absolutely or subject to conditions, within specified local limits, the establishment of sawpits, the converting, cutting, burning, concealing or making of timber, the altering or effacing of any marks on the same, or the possession or carrying of marking hammers or other implements used for marking timber;

(i) regulate the use of property marks for timber, and the registration of such marks; prescribe the time for which such registration shall hold good; limit the number of such marks that may be registered by any one person, and provide for the levy of fees for such registration.

(3) The State Government may direct that any rule made under this section shall not apply to any specified class of timber or other forest-produce or to any specified local area.

Comments

Section 41 of the Act confers on the State Government the power to make rules to regulate the transit of forest-produce. The power conferred under this section is merely regulatory in nature, in respect of transit of timber and other forest-produce, Kashi Prasad v. State of Orissa, AIR 1963 Ori 24.

1[41A. Powers of Central Government as to movements of timber across customs frontiers.-Notwithstanding anything in section 41, the Central Government may make rules to prescribe the route by which alone timber or other forest-produce may be imported, exported or moved into or from 2[the territories to which this Act extends] across any customs frontier as defined by the Central Government, and any rules made under section 41 shall have effect subject to the rules made under this section.]

42. Penalty for breach of rules made under section 41.-(I) The State Government may be such rules prescribe as penalties for the contravention thereof imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or both.

(2) Such rules may provide that penalties which are double of those mentioned in sub-section (I) may be inflicted in cases where the offence is committed after sunset and before sunrise, or after preparation for resistance to lawful authority, or when the offender has been previously convicted of a like offence.

Comments

The State Government are authorised under section 42 of the Act to make rules to prescribe penalties for the breach of rules made under section 41 of the Act, Shiv Narain Bhasin v. Sate of H.P., 1986 Cri LJ 574 (HP).

43. Government and Forest-officers not liable for damage to forest-produce at depot.-The Government shall not be responsible for any loss or damage which may occur in respect of any timber or other forest-produce while at a depot established under a rule made under section 41, or while detained elsewhere, for the purposes of this Act; and no Forest-officer shall be responsible for any such loss or damage, unless he causes such loss or damage negligently, maliciously or fraudulently.

1. Ins. by the A.O. 1937.

2. Subs. by the Adaptation of Laws (No. 3) Order, 1956, for "Part A States and Part C States".

44. All persons bound to aid in case of accidents at depot.-In case of any accident or emergency involving danger to any property at any such depot, every person employed at such depot, whether by the Government or by any private person, shall render assistance to any Forest-officer or Police-officer demanding his aid in averting such danger or securing such property from damage or loss.

Chapter VIII

Of the collection of drift and stranded timber

45. Certain kinds of timber to be deemed property of Government until title thereto proved, and may be collected accordingly.-(I)All timber found adrift, beached stranded or sunk; all wood or timber bearing marks which have not been registered in accordance with the rules made under section 41, or on which the marks have been obliterated, altered or defaced by fire or otherwise; and in such areas as the State Government directs, all unmarked wood and timber, shall be deemed to be the property of Government, unless and until any person establishes his right and title thereto, as provided in this Chapter.

(2) Such timber may be collected by any Forest-officer or other person entitled to collect the same by virtue of any rule made under section 51 and may be brought to any depot which the Forest-officer may notify as a depot for the reception of drift timber.

(3) The State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, exempt any class of timber from the provisions of this section.

Comments

The compliance by Government with the conditions laid down in the Indian Forest Act, 1927 is obligatory; AIR 1931 Cal 430.

46. Notice to claimants of drift timber.—Public notice shall from time to time be given by the Forest-officer, of timber collected under section 45. Such notice shall contain a description of the timber, and shall require any person claiming the same to present to such officer, within a period not less than two months from the date of such notice, a written statement of such claim.

47. Produce on claim preferred to such timber.—(I) When any such statement is presented as aforesaid, the Forest-officer may, after making such inquiry as he thinks fit, either reject the claim after according his reasons for so doing, or deliver the timber to the claimant.

(2) If such timber is claimed by more than one person, the Forest-officer may either deliver the same to any of such persons who he deems entitled thereto, or may refer the claimants to the Civil Courts, and retain the timber pending the receipt of an order from any such Court for its disposal.

(3) Any person whose claim has been rejected under this section may, within three months from the date of such rejection, institute a suit to recover possession of the timber claimed by him; but no person shall recover any compensation or costs against the Government, or against any Forest-officer on account of such rejection, or the detention or removal of any timber, or the delivery thereof to any other person under this section.

(4) No such timber shall be subject to process of any Civil, Criminal or Revenue Court until it has been delivered, or a suit has been brought, as provided in this section.

48. Disposal of unclaimed timber.—If no such statement is presented as aforesaid, or if the claimant omits to prefer his claim in the manner and within the period fixed by the notice issued under section 46, or on such claim having been so preferred by him and having been rejected, omits to institute a suit to recover possession of such timber within the further period fixed by section 47, the ownership of such timber shall vest in the Government, or, when such timber has been delivered to another person under section 47, in such other person free from all encumbrances not created by him.

49. Government and its officers not liable for damage to such timber.-The Government shall not be responsible for any loss or damage which may occur in respect of any timber collected under section 45, and no Forest-officer shall be responsible for any such loss or damage, unless he causes such loss or damage negligently, maliciously or fraudulently.

50. Payments to be made by claimant before timber is delivered to him.-No person shall be entitled to recover possession of any timber collected or delivered as aforesaid until he has paid to the Forest-officer or other person entitled to receive it such sum on account thereof as may be due under any rule made under section 51.

(2) The State Government may prescribe, as penalties for the contravention of any rules made under this section, imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or both.

Chapter LX

Penalties and Procedure

52. Seizure of property liable to confiscation.-(1) When there is reason to believe that a forest-offence has been committed in respect of any forest-produce, such produce, together with all tools, boats, carts or cattle used in committing any such offence, may be seized by any Forest-officer or Police-officer.

(2) Every officer seizing any property under this section shall place on such property a mark indicating that the same has been so seized, and shall, as soon as may be, make a report of such seizure to the Magistrate having jurisdiction to try the offence on account of which the seizure has been made;

Provided that, when the forest-produce with respect to which such offence is believed to have been committed is the property of Government, and the offender is unknown, it shall be sufficient if the officer makes, as soon as may be, a report of the circumstances to his official superior.

Comments

The procedure as contained in section 52 of the Act must be strictly completed by the officer seizing the property in connection with the commission of forest offence. According to the provisions of this section, the officer can not justify the detention of the property or material so seized on the ground of an offence against the forest law if he has not taken the recourse of section 52 of the Act which requires to bring the matter before the Magistrate as soon as may be, but this expression "as soon as may be" can not be so construed as to cover a period of weeks or months; Kamlesh Kumar v. State of M.P., AIR 1985 MP 130.

53. Power to release property seized under section 52.-Any Forest-officer of a rank not inferior to that of a Ranger who, or whose subordinate, has seized any tools, boats, carts or cattle under section 52, may release the same on the execution by the owner thereof a bond for the production of the property so released, if and when so required, before the Magistrate having jurisdiction to try the offence on account of which the seizure has been made.

54. Procedure thereupon.-Upon the receipt of any such report, the Magistrate shall, with all convenient despatch, take such measures as may be necessary for the arrest and trial of the offender and the disposal of the property according to law.

Comments

Disposal of property as contemplated in section 54 of the Act also includes interim disposal of property subject to the course of final decision, Shabbir Ali v. State, 1987 MPLJ 57.

55. Forest-produce, tools, etc., when liable to confiscation.-(I) All timber or forest-produce which is not the property of Government and in respect of which a forest-offence has been committed, and all tools, boats, carts and cattle used in committing any forest-offence, shall be liable to confiscation.

(2) Such confiscation may be in addition to any other punishment prescribed for such offence.

Comments

(i) The provision of sub-section (2) of section 55 make it clear that such confiscation may be in addition to any other punishment prescribed for such offence; State of Maharashtra v. Arjun Tabadu Mahajan, 1988 Cr LJ(Mah) 236.

(ii) Under section 55 of the Act, the phrase "shall be liable for confiscation" does not mean that property stands automatically confiscated. On the contrary, it is pre-supposed that an opportunity is to be given to the person effected before the property is actually ordered to be confiscated; Mehta Brothers v. State of H.P., AIR 1980 HP 289.

56. Disposal on conclusion of trial for forest-offence, of produce in respect of which it was committed.-When the trial of any forest-offence is concluded, any forest-produce in respect of which such offence has been committed shall, if it is the property of Government or has been confiscated, be taken charge of by a Forest-officer, and, in any other case, may be disposed of in such manner as the Court may direct.

57. Produce when offender not known or cannot be found.-When the offender is not known or cannot be found, the Magistrate may, if he finds that an offence has been committed, order the property in respect of which the offence has been committed to be confiscated and taken charge of by the Forest-officer, or to be made over to the person whom the Magistrate deems to be entitled to the same;

Provided that no such order shall be made until the expiration of one month from the date of seizing such property, or without hearing the person, if any, claiming any right thereto, and the evidence, if any, which he may produce in support of his claim.

58. Procedure as to perishable property seized under section 52.-The Magistrate may, notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, direct the sale of any property seized under section 52 and subject to speedy and natural decay, and may deal with the proceeds as he would have dealt with such property if it had not been sold.

59 . Appeal from orders under section 55, section 56 or section 57.-The officer who made the seizure under section 52, or any of his official superiors, or any person claiming to be interested in the property so seized, may, within one month from the date of any order passed under section 55, section 56 or section 57, appeal therefrom to the Court to which orders made by such Magistrate are ordinarily appealable, and the order passed on such appeal shall be final.

60. Property when to vest in Government.-When an order for the confiscation of any property has been passed under section 55 or section 57, as the case may be, and the period limited by section 59 for an appeal from such order has elapsed, and no such appeal has been preferred, or when, on such an appeal being preferred, the Appellate Court confirms such order in respect of the whole or a portion of such property, such property or such portion thereof, as the case may be, shall vest in the Government free from all encumbrances.

61. Saving of power to release property seized.-Nothing hereinbefore contained shall be deemed to prevent any officer empowered in this behalf by the State Government from directing at any time the immediate release of any property seized under section 52.

62. Punishment for wrongful seizure.-Any Forest-officer or Police-officer who vexatiously and unnecessarily seizes any property on pretence of seizing property liable to confiscation under this Act shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both.

63. Penalty for counterfeiting or defacing marks on trees and timber and for altering boundary marks.-Whoever, with intent to cause damage or injury to the public or to any person, or to cause wrongful gain as defined in the Indian Penal Code-

(a) knowingly counterfeits upon any timber or standing tree a mark used by Forest-officers to indicate that such timber or tree is the property of the Government or of some person, or that it may lawfully be cut or removed by some person; or

(b) alters, defaces or obliterates any such mark placed on a tree or on timber by or under the authority of a Forest-officer; or shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years, or with fine, or with both.

64. Power to arrest without warrant.-(I) Any Forest-officer or Police-officer may, without orders from a Magistrate and without a warrant, arrest any person against whom a reasonable suspicion exists of his having been concerned in any forest-offence punishable with imprisonment for one month or upwards.

(2) Every officer making an arrest under this section shall, without unnecessary delay and subject to the provisions of this Act as to release on bond, take or send the person arrested before the Magistrate having jurisdiction in the case, or to the officer in charge of the nearest police station.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to authorise such arrest for any act which is an offence under Chapter IV unless such act has been prohibited under clause (c) of section 30.

65. Power to release on a bond a person arrested.-Any Forest-officer of a rank not inferior to that of a Ranger, who, or whose subordinate, has arrested any person under the provisions of section 64, may release such person on his executing a bond to appear, if and when so required, before the Magistrate having jurisdiction in the case, or before the officer in charge of the nearest police station.

66. Power to prevent commission of offence.-Every Forest-officer and Police-officer shall prevent, and may interfere for the purpose of preventing, the commission of any forest-offence.

67. Power to try offences summarily.-The District Magistrate or any Magistrate of the first class specially empowered in this behalf by the State Government may try summary, under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, any forest-offence punishable with imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or fine not exceeding five hundred rupees, or both.

68. Power to compound offences.-(1) The State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, empower a Forest officer.-
